10. [REDACTED] Delivered Agency views on H. R. 4845
(ADP Bill) to Miss Mary Sabine, BOB, and requested earliest clearance.
Later in the morning, we received BOB's clearance of our report by telephone.

Met with Mr. Ernest C. Baynard, Staff Administrator, Subcommittee on Government Activities, and Congressman Jack Brooks (D., Tex.), Chairman of the Subcommittee, with respect to our views. Mr. Brooks gave assurances that the bill, as reported, would not pose a problem to our security requirements, but indicated that he felt sure there were ADP areas in the Agency which were not sensitive. In a subsequent and more detailed meeting with Mr. Baynard, it developed that the committee was most unhappy with DOD's report and intended to give the DOD witness, Mr. Paul H. Riley, Deputy Assistant Secretary for Supply and Service, a thorough going over. Mr. Baynard suggested "for our own interest" that we review whether we wanted to tie ourselves up completely with DOD. I explained that what was utmost in our mind was to eliminate any conflict between the mandatory provisions of the bill and the statutory responsibilities of the DCI, and that the method of accomplishing this was of secondary importance. However, I left our report with him, indicating that he would be contacted in connection with whether it would be our final position or not. (See Memorandum for the Record).

11. [REDACTED] Talked with Robert Michaels, House Appropriations Committee staff. I indicated to him that I wished to discuss with him several items of withdrawal from the reserve and it was agreed that we would discuss this later in the week when he visits the Agency to review the budget. He also stated that he wished to talk with Mr. Clarke ahead of time to indicate the types of questions he wishes to raise.

11. [redacted] Talked with Dr. Morgan, Chairman, House Foreign Affairs Committee, indicating [redacted] request for a releasable statement and the possible difficulty we might have with House Armed Services. Dr. Morgan stated that this gave him no problem if we did not give Selden a statement adding that we had given him the benefit of the information in a classified briefing.

13. [redacted] Accompanied [redacted] 25X1
[redacted] OCS/DDS&T, to the Brooks' Subcommittee hearing on H.R. 4845, Automatic Data Processing Bill, and heard the testimony of Mr. Elmer B. Staats, DOD, and Mr. Lewsen Knott, Acting Administrator, CSA. Mr. Knott was still testifying at 4:00 p.m., and the hearings were running behind schedule because of the extensive question and answer period devoted to building up the record. I was informed that this would mean that Deputy Assistant Secretary Paul H. Riley, of DOD, would not testify until tomorrow morning, and it is planned that we will sit in on that session since the present Agency position paper on this bill is tied to the DOD position. I also informed a member of the Committee staff that as soon as the hearings were completed, which should be the end of tomorrow, we would like to again sit down with Mr. Ernest C. Baynard, Staff Administrator of the Subcommittee, to review our position with him.
